Pat!
I've known you since the 6th grade
now (Remember your little drum?) and I must say that you're a really great person. I don't forget you! (But I've been trying to say this for a long time,
I'm sorry, huh?) You're a great girl...
and you certainly have one of the best sets
of friends I've ever met.
Keep your great personality, you have a little twin looking to you for leadership.
You know.

Love to you and your little drum.

On Sept. 3 in Memorial Stadium, the Central Wildeats opened their 1954 season against mighty Chattanooga, Tennessee, state champions for the past three years. The Wildeats showed a dangerous passing attack but were run over by the big Nooga backfield. In the fourth quarter Jerry Amos hit Pat Purser for a seven yard touchdown to make the score 28-6.

On Sept. 17, Wilmington played the Cats here. Unheralded Tommy Cornelius ripped Wilmington for 56 yards on three plays and a touchdown to highlight Central's 13-6 triumph. Wildeat Tony Philmon scored the other tally on a two yard plunge after a 41 yard drive.

On Sept. 24, the Central gridders went to Greensboro and played a whale of a game before falling under the superior drive of the Whirlies. Jerry Amos was again superb in his quarterback slot, completing 13 out of 22 attempted passes. Pat Purser and Baine Martin caught two of them for touchdowns. The score was 26-12.

On Oct. 1, the Yellow Jackets of Salisbury fell to the Cats by the score of 21-14. The first touchdown came at the end of the first half when Leroy Wilson caught a 40 yard pass from Amos. Then in the third quarter Wilson gathered in a punt and ran 75 yards for another score. An Amos to Purser pass from the three yard line accounted for the other score.

On Oct. 7, the Greenwave of Gastonia gave us an exciting game in Memorial Stadium. In the first half, with big Bobby Hicks in the fullback slot, the Cats moved easily with Hicks scoring once from the four yard line. From then on it was nip and tuck until Gastonia took the lead by 13-7 in the last five minutes. Cool Jerry Amos led the attack and finally hit John Kirkley from the 25 yard line with the tying score. The game ended in a deadlock.

The Central High football team went to the mountains to play Asheville on Oct. 15. In the second quarter, Tony Philmon scored our only touchdown as we were upset 13-6.

FOOTBALL RESUME

On Oct 22, Central played in High Point, losing 12-27. Bobby Hicks was again the offensive star, scoring on runs of 57 yards and 6 yards. Gene Church played fine defensive football.

It was not until Oct. 28 that the team really caught fire. The Burlington Bulldogs were met by the finest defensive playing which the Cat line displayed all year. Jimmy Stassinis, Harry Timmons, and Jack Lazarus were the defensive stars. All our scoring was done in the first half. Midway in the first quarter, Reggie Busby cut off right tackle and scampered 24 yards to a touchdown. In the second quarter, Leroy Wilson, on his "Patented Play" caught a pass for 52 yards and our final score. Then our big line took over, defending our lead of 12-8 for a victory.

On Nov. 5, Central upset Reynolds by the score of 20-13 in Memorial Stadium. Hicks and Busby again powered the attack. Bobby Hicks scored twice and Busby once.

The twelfth of November was the big day for the Central grid team. The Cats went into the game as 7 points underdogs but stunned Harding from the opening kickoff to the final whistle. The big Cat line led by Hankie McCrorie and Jack Lazarus pushed the Rams all over the field in the first half. Near the end of the second quarter, Amos hit Busby in the end zone with a touchdown pass from the 10 yard line. McCrorie converted. The second half was played on equal terms, but Harding managed to score in the third quarter on a short pass to Ray Short. The game ended in a 7-7 tie with the Cats moving toward the Ram goal. Bobby Hicks was the leading ground gainer picking up 77 yards in 11 tries.

Although the Central gridders didn't win any conference or state laurels, they played clean, hard football all season. We are especially proud of All-City, All Conference, Jerry Amos, Pat Purser, and Jack Lazarus, and All-City, Jim Stassinis. Bobby Hicks and Jack Lazarus represented Central well in the Shrine Bowl.

Mr. Mac

It's hard to put into words what I feel about our three years at Central. Your friendship has meant to me more than you'll ever know. I'll never forget the great times we have had together especially sleeping at your house and up in the mountains. Even though you go to cow college or duke I will always remember you as the best of friends. I wish for you the best of everything in life.
Your best friend for life

BASKETBALL RESUME

The 1954-55 basketball season was one of building for the Central Wildcats. Flu and other illnesses did much to keep the squad of seven juniors and five seniors from having a better season.

Led by Captain Tommy Graham, Jim Moyle, Rick McDonough, Walter Mills, Spike Wiederman, and Pat Sarsfield, the Wildcats managed to win half of their games, ending with a 10-10 season.

Although the Wildcats finished only sixth in the Western Conference, they played an important role in preventing Greensboro from repeating as Conference titlists and knocking Salisbury from the tournament.

The Wildcats once more won the mythical city championship by beating Myers Park and Harding twice by large margins.

Jim Moyle and Rick McDonough both won second string berths on the All-Conference team while Pat Sarsfield and Walter Mills rated honorable mention.

Rick McDonough was picked as Most Valuable Player on the team.

The Wildcat cause was helped greatly by forwards Larry Powell and Leon Gettis and guard Hankie McCrorie. Don Millen, David Trull, and John Kirkley also turned in fine performances.

Rhodes Corbett and Reid Hinson proved to be capable, hard-working managers and their efforts were greatly appreciated.

Although Coach Irv Edelman did not have so polished a squad as he had in the past, he was quite proud of the fine spirit of the team throughout the whole season.

The Junior Varsity, led by Captain Dick Widenhouse and Bill Sitton had a very fine season. Bill Reitan, Bubba Rion, and Mel Dixon also starred. Vicky Moser, Bob Holland, Cecil King, Paul Kirkley, Jackie Parris, Gene Davis, and Jim Turner helped turn in a fine season.

mae,
you have got "it". I don't know what "it" is but you sure have a lot of "it". You will probably be a great success in anything you do your outstanding personality, your loosey going way, and your two hope you come up to Duke but

The sapling is no more;
Now it is the tree,
And only in tomorrow
Will we stop to see
That there is the beginning.

For
The seed has burst,
The sprout has grown,
The limbs have spread,
Weak leaves have blown.
And we stand ready . . .
Unaware that tomorrow this
Will have been the beginning.

How tall, how straight, how strong a tree
That we will ever grow to be,
And what may be our destiny
Is in truth just you and me,
And what we were in the beginning.

Strong trunks with tender branches!
Know how to enjoy it,
That tomorrow we will say—
This was the beginning

CLASS HISTORY

On a cool September day in 1952, the enormous doors of Central High School were thrown open to the eager, wide-eyed sophomore class. As this class comes now to graduation, one finds that same eagerness that prevailed then and that has carried this Senior Class of 1955 through its three years of golden opportunities at Central.

For us, there were the first few hectic days as "sophs" when Central became a reality. We elected Ann Cook, Betty Faye Smith, Don Millen, and Nancy Long to lead us through our first semester. We got our first glimpse of Student Council elections. They were different from anything we had ever seen. It was hard to believe that some day soon we would be on the stage leading the campaigns. Of course there was that great calamity, our loss to Harding, but who can deny that we had one of the best all-around teams in a long time. Basketball season rolled around and the team under a new coach, Irv Edelman, rolled over all the opposition in moving to Central's First Western Triple A Conference Championship in many a year. Elections came again and we picked Bill Bellows, Fred McIntyre, Joan King, and Jack Thornton to lead us to the end of our sophomore year.

Soon the year was over but we knew we had gained memories from our first year at "C.H.S." that would live with us forever. Slowly we were becoming a part of Central and Central was becoming a part of us.

The summer was over and we came back to Central and looked down with mock disgust at the "measly sophs" who seemed little more than knee-high to a duck. Right off we elected our new officers — Baine Martin, Tommy Graham, Mary Froebe, and Kermit Bates. Our football team went through another fine season but once again we were on the short end of the score in the Harding game. "Wait 'til next year" became our cry. How could anyone forget the "Hutch" leading the "gang of boys" in the front hall to the tune of "Thomas Mix." Basketball was still on the rise, as we had two of the best ball players in the state in "Cowboy" and Ed. We elected our second semester officers, choosing Bill Bellows, John Lomax, Nita Ferrell, Don Millen. You couldn't leave out the big parties thrown by the Key Club and G. G. S.

and of course, the Kapers were bigger and better than ever. We chose Baine Martin to be our Student Council President for the next year. Swiftly our year was drawing to a close and with it, our first Junior-Senior. Under the able direction of Don Millen and a host of others, we put on the best ever. Before the dance was the big beach trip. For most of us, it was our first and we really made the most of it. Suddenly, our year was over and each of us felt a little uneasy at graduation for we realized that we soon would be the "Senior Class."

Then came our senior year. Our class was enlarged by those of us who came from Tech. At first, it seemed to both groups of students that "it just wasn't right." But soon we all realized what a determining factor for Central this new combination would be. Former Tech stars "Jumbo" and Spike became Central stars, and former Tech star Hicks joined Lazarus in the Shrine Bowl. And we were definitely one class as we looked forward to the Harding game on that memorable night of the Black Moriah. We elected our first semester officers. For the first time in many years the Key Club and G. G. S. met on common ground when they went caroling together. Many doubted if it would work but it was a rousing success.

Of course, the Armory had to burn and we had trouble finding a place to hold commencement. Again, as many times in the past, we all rose to fight for what we wanted, and when the smoke cleared, we had gotten our way and were to have an outdoor commencement. We elected our Second Semester Class officers—Bill Bellows, Joyce Odom, Joan King, and Harry Timmons. In the close race for Student Council President Jerry Ammons got the nod from the student body.

We were coming to the close of our year and we were bragging how glad we were, but in each of us was that feeling that we could never leave Central. We made the most of the last few months—picnics, beach parties, dances. We were trying to crowd everything we could into such a short time.

Yes Seniors, it was truly a great life. We are yet to leave "footprints on the sands of time," but our footprints are planted, never to be erased, in the halls of Central High.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the celebrated class of 1955 at Central High School, being in full possession of our minds on the eighteenth day of May in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-five do make this our last will and testament. In writing this document we have made it eschew flatulent garrulity and possess coalescent consistency. In other words it does not beat around the bush.

In the three years that we have spent at Central we have acquired knowledge and various talents. We shall leave bits of these abilities to the younger generation of Central students. We hope they will use them as wisely as we have.

So much for that, now down to business.

These are just a few of the happy things we shall remember in the years to come.

CLASS PROPHECY

My name is I. Ben Scrachinoff. I am a prognosticator to end all prognosticators. Through my home-made crystal ball (which I have nicknamed "Donovan's Brain") I can see far into the future. What's that? You'd like to take a look at 1970? O. K., let's go.

In Las Vegas, Nevada, one of the most exclusive night clubs in the country is being opened. According to its owners—Keith Baucom, Pete Collier, and Harry Timmons—the Club Notorious will stay open twenty-four hours a day. Those boys never did like to sleep too much. Wandering around the club is former pro football star, Jack Lazarus. He was hired by Baucom as a bouncer. It's quite a break for Jack. He's been selling ladies' shoes ever since he quit the football wars. I know Jack's boss, Donnie Graham, will be sorry to see him leave. Jack was becoming quite a salesman.

Miss Ann Sullivan, TV and movie star, gets top billing at Club Notorious. The Thomas Downer Dancers, who accompany Miss Sullivan, lost one of their top performers when Ruth Ann Cliff was plucked from their ranks by co-owner Timmons. He explained that he didn't want her to catch cold in the scanty costume she was planning to wear. "The music is furnished by McIntyre's Merry Musicmakers." Leader Fred McIntyre retired to the bandstand recently and turned his drumming duties over to his understudies, Effie Lomax and Jack Meek. There's some speculation as to why Fred gave up the drums. Some say his fifth wife, Nancy House, made him do it.

I understand that Norma Hurt, "Miss Big Built-up of 1969," will make a guest appearance tonight. She's accompanied on her travels by the noted fashion leader Ann Robinson. Miss Robinson is wife of dentist and sportsman, Dr. James Moss, who runs the mile in his spare time. He may become the first man to run the three minute mile. His strongest competition comes from cartoonist, Tommy Hutchins, creator of the "Knife-anhammer Kids." Hutchins' last try was a 3 min. 4.863421975 sec. mile. Movie mogul Tommy Byrnes timed Hutchins' last race.

Word is going around that financial wizard David Mincey has been hired to look after the monetary problems of Club Notorious. Mincey is such a genius that even Mary Froebe, first woman Secretary of the Treasury, consults him when she has a particularly difficult problem.

I see that George Bryan Adams, master designer and planner, and his lovely wife, Mary Jo Wooten, former bubble dancer, are seated at a corner table. George is reading a newspaper article about an old schoolmate Dr. Bill Bellows, Harvard professor, who has come up with a new formula. It's used for finding the ratio of the velocity of the chain reaction of splitting Wagnerium atoms squared to the diameter of the earth divided by pi to ninety-one decimal places. Incidentally, Wagnerium is the latest of the man-made elements. It was discovered by a high school chemistry teacher by the name of Bill Wagner. Wagner discovered the element while he was splitting some atoms in a cyclotron made by Peter Snow, who runs a handkerchief factory when he's not busy with his hobby—nuclear physics.

Another great invention in the field of science was reported today. Mickey Vann has produced a counter geiger counter to show where there isn't any radioactivity. Sounds like a real advance for mankind.

Two couples just arrived at Club Notorious. It's that famous international lover Frank Bell and Ann Lynn Wofford, gossip columnist of the Basin Street Blues News. Baine Martin, traveling salesman for Mom Spray Deodorant, and Beverly Collier, Dash Records recording artist, are with them.

There's Broadway star Jerry Ammons and his charming wife, Pat Beatty. Miss Beatty is the new dancer for Old Gold Super King Size cigarettes. Ammons has a book with him by philosopher-author Don Millen. It's entitled Millen's Maxims for Mankind.

Playboys Pat Sarsfield and Larry Powell are over at the bar. They were just released from custody the other day when celebrated lawyer Dick Cornwell got them acquitted. They were operating a pool hall without a license.

That looks like Joyce Ann Odom, "Schoolteacher of the Year," sitting at the bar. She was jilted a few days ago by the head caddy at the Sham O' Tanter Country Club, Jack Wills.

George Rudisill, owner of the Ipana Toothpaste Company, is dating the "girl with the Ipana smile," Betty Faye Smith. Some people think they're secretly married. They could be right. George never did talk too much about his love life.

President of the American Federation of Underpaid Carpenters, Claude Smith, just arrived. John Driggers, amateur tennis star, is with him. Driggers has been posing for a "I smoke Home Runs because they smell better" ads.

Well I can't overwork the "Brain." I guess that's enough for you to get an idea of how things will be in 1970. They could be worse—I think?

Timidly submitted,
TOMMY GRAHAM, Prophet
